General Business

- AG Julie Gorrington from the Rotary Club of Chinchilla thanked our members for their assistance with the Home Expo and informed the club it will not be held later in the year. As it is the centenary of Rotary Foundation this year a Roadshow incorporating the Iron Lung is touring the District.
- President Geoff spoke on the Dot Point template we are now using and he hopes it will assist to make our Dot Points [minutes] a uniform reflection of our weekly meetings.
- President Geoff also made a $1000 donation on behalf of our Nomads Club to Tour de Cure and presented a video from the Peter MacCallum Cancer Center . Paul Egan was the contact and it would be worth looking up on the website and viewing again. Faye Powell managed to see the Tour de Cure riding in Tasmania.
- Geoff also reported that the food for the Biggest Morning Tea will be arranged in Berri.
- Zoom personal from Denver Colorado (or somewhere in the USA - Geoff) contacted Geoff to ask how Zoom was going and he was able to report we are very happy.
